Description

Immerse yourself in an oasis of exclusivity and connection with nature at Coral Cotillo Reef, a four-star hotel where sustainability and luxury meet in perfect harmony. Located in the picturesque fishing village of El Cotillo, this unique retreat in Fuerteventura blends local authenticity with the island's unspoiled beauty, beautifully integrated into the stunning volcanic landscape and just 50 meters from one of the most pristine coastlines in Europe, recognized by UNESCO as a World Biosphere Reserve.

With architecture featuring natural materials such as stone, wood, and rock, Coral Cotillo Reef pays tribute to natural beauty, creating an atmosphere of tranquility and respect for the environment. The charming village of El Cotillo, with its white houses and blue doors and windows, invites visitors to stroll through its peaceful alleys and discover its rich culinary tradition based on fresh fish.

From the harbor, guests can observe the local fishing activity — a tradition passed down through generations — while iconic sites such as El Cotillo Lighthouse and Tostón Tower offer panoramic views and a deep connection to the area's history.
